MEDIA ADVISORY – June 29, 2021

Inaugural Bluezzy Brunch in September to Benefit Kids' Orchestra, Media Invited

To support East Baton Rouge Parish's young student musicians, Kids' Orchestra is set to launch its inaugural Bluezzy Brunch on Sunday, September 19 during the weekend of the Baton Rouge Blues Festival. Members of the media are invited to attend. Elizabeth Vowell will be the emcee of the event.

"WAFB is always excited to partner with organizations that are working to make a difference in the lives of the children in our community," said Elizabeth Vowell, WAFB news anchor. "I know what music has done in my own life, so I am thrilled to follow Donna Britt's lead in spotlighting Kids' Orchestra and their mission to develop confident leaders through music."

- WHAT: Bluezzy Brunch is an inaugural fundraising event benefiting afterschool music nonprofit, Kids' Orchestra (KO). The event will feature live music, brunch, and bottomless mimosas and Bloody Marys.
- WHERE: Riverview Ballroom at the Hilton Capitol Center Hotel
- WHEN: Sunday, September 19 from 11:00 am – 1:00 pm
- WHY: Bluezzy Brunch will benefit KO's mission of building a community of creative, confident, and socially engaged students through music education.
- Event supporters will help KO sustain its afterschool program by providing opportunities to elementary-age children across East Baton Rouge Parish.
- WHO: Bluezzy Brunch will feature music by jazz and blues singer, Quiana Lynell and a special performance and Second Line by John Gray and Friends.

Tickets will be sold on kidsorchestra.org starting in July for $75 per seat. Sponsorships and tables are for sale now, please contact Kelly Hurtado, kelly.hurtado1@gmail.com, 225-802-3568.

About Kids' Orchestra

Kids' Orchestra's (KO) mission is to build a community of creative, confident, and socially engaged students through music education. KO serves elementary-age students from across East Baton Rouge Parish and gives them the opportunity to study instruments and perform in an ensemble. To learn more, visit: www.kidsorchestra.org.
